

Longstone KS3/KS4 Charter

Pupils will	Article	Adults will
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Be sensible and respectful when voicing our opinions.- Be tolerant to other people's opinions.	Article 12: You have a right to give your opinion, and for adults to listen and take it seriously.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Allow pupils to participate in the School Council.- Take action when pupils voice their opinion.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Keep the school clean and tidy.- Encourage each other to eat healthy.- Choose the healthy option.	Article 24: You have a right to safe water, nutritious food and a clean environment.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Keep the school clean and tidy.- Encourage pupils to eat healthy.- Give pupils healthy treats.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Work hard.- Have good behaviour.- Have good attendance.	Article 28: You have a right to an education	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Help pupils to learn by being prepared with exciting lessons.- Give extra help if a pupil is stuck.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Try their best to improve their talents.- Actively participate in all activities.- Try new things.	Article 29 Your education should help you use and develop your talents and abilities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Allow pupils to work on what they are good at.- Set up a variety of clubs and societies.- Encourage pupils to reveal their talents.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Respect other people when playing.- Respect equipment when playing.	Article 31 You have the right to play and rest	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Encourage pupils to participate in P.E.- Not give pupils too much work.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Tell an adult if you are being harmed.- Tell an adult if a friend is being harmed.	Article 19 You have the right to be safe.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Look out for signs of harm.- Help pupils who are suffering from harm.

Article 12:
You have a right to give your opinion, and for adults to listen and take it seriously

Pupils Will:

Be sensible and respectful when voicing our opinions.
Be tolerant to other people's opinions.

Adults will:

Allow pupils to participate in the School Council.
Take action when pupils voice their opinion.

Article 24:
You have a right to safe water, nutritious food and a clean environment

Pupils Will:

Keep the school clean and tidy.
Encourage each other to eat healthy.
Choose the healthy option.

Adults will:

Keep the school clean and tidy.
Encourage pupils to eat healthy.
Give pupils healthy treats.

Article 28: You have a right to an education

Pupils Will:

Work hard.
Have good behaviour.
Have good attendance.

Adults will:

Help pupils to learn by being prepared with exciting lessons.
Give extra help if a pupil is stuck.

Article 29

Your education should help you use and develop your talents and abilities

Pupils Will:

Try their best to improve their talents.
Actively participate in all activities.
Try new things.

Adults will:

Allow pupils to work on what they are good at.
Set up a variety of clubs and societies.
Encourage pupils to reveal their talents.

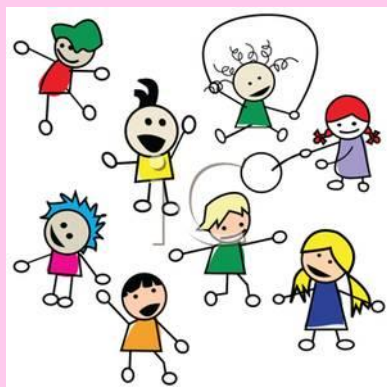

Article 31

You have the right to play and rest

Pupils Will:

Respect other people when playing.
Respect equipment when playing.

Adults will:

Encourage pupils to participate in P.E.
Not give pupils too much work.

Article 19

You have the right to be Safe

Pupils Will:

Tell an adult if you are being harmed.
Tell an adult if a friend is being harmed.

Adults will:

Look out for signs of harm.
Help pupils who are suffering from harm.

